50. Scrutiny of nomination papers:-- (1) On the day following the last day fixed for filing nomination papers, the nomination papers shall be scrutinised by the employer in the presence of the candidates and the attesting persons and those which are not valid shall be rejected.

(2) For the purpose of sub-rule (I), a nomination paper shall be held to be not valid if

(a) The candidate nominated is ineligible for membership under Rule 46; or

(b) the requirements of Rule 49 have not been complied with

Provided that where a candidate or an attesting person is unable to be present at the time of scrutiny, he may send a duly authorised nominee for the purpose.

50-A. Withdrawal of candidates validly nominated:-- Any candidate whose nomination for election has been accepted may withdraw his candidature within 48 hours of the completion of scrutiny of nomination papers.

51. Voting in election:-- (1) If the number of candidates who have been validly nominated is equal to the number of seats, the candidates shall be forthwith declared duly elected.

(2) If in any constituency the number of candidates is more than the number of seats allotted to it, voting shall take place on the day fixed for election.

(3) The election shall be held in such manner as may be convenient for each electoral constituency.

(4) The voting shall be conducted by the employer, and if any of the candidates belonging to a union such of them as the union may nominate shall be associated with the election.
(5) Every workman entitled to vote at an electoral constituency shall have as many votes as there are seats to be filled in the constituency:
Provided that each voter shall be entitled to cast only one vote in favour of any one candidate.

52. Arrangement for election: The employer shall be responsible for all arrangements in connection with election.

53. Officers of the Committee:

   (1) The Committee shall have among its office-bearers a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Joint Secretary. The Secretary shall be elected every year.

   (2) The Chairman shall be nominated by the employer from amongst the employer's representatives on the committee and he shall, as far as possible, be the head of the establishment.

   (2A) The Vice-Chairman shall be elected by the members on the committee representing the workers, from amongst themselves. Provided in the event of equality of votes in the election of the Vice-Chairman, the matter shall be decided by draw of a lot.

   (3) The Committee shall elect the Secretary and Joint Secretary provided that where the Secretary is elected from amongst the representatives of the employers; the Joint Secretary shall be elected from amongst the representatives of the workmen and vice versa.

   Provided further that the post of the Secretary or the Joint Secretary as the case may be, shall not be held by a representative of the employer or the workmen for two consecutive years.

54. Term of office:

   (1) The term of office of the representatives on the committee other than a member chosen to fill a casual vacancy, shall be two years.

   (2) A member chosen to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

   (3) A member, who without obtaining leave from the Committee fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee shall forfeit his membership.

55. Vacancies: In the event of workmen's representative ceasing to be a member under sub-rule (3) of Rule 54 or ceasing to be employed in the establishment or in the event of his ceasing to represent the trade or vocation he was representing on resignation or death his successor shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of this part from the same category, group, class, section, shop or department to which the member vacating the seat belonged.

56. Power to co-opt: The committee shall have the right to co-opt, in a consultative capacity persons employed in the establishment having particular or special knowledge of a matter under discussion. Such co-opter member shall not be entitled to vote and shall be present at meetings only for the period during which the particular question is before the Committee.

57. Meetings:

   (1) The Committee may meet as often as necessary but not less often than once a month.

Provided that in case of seasonal establishment which works only for a part of the year the committee shall meet only during the season when the establishment works.

(2) The committee shall at its first meeting regulate its own procedure and make bye-laws subject to the approval of the committee of labour.

58. Facilities for meeting, etc.:— (1) The employer shall provide accommodation for holding meeting of the Committee. He shall also provide all necessary facilities to the Committee, and to the members thereof for carrying out the work of the Committee. The Committee shall ordinarily meet during working hours of the establishment concerned on any working day and the representative of the workman shall be deemed to be on duty while attending the meeting.

(2) The Secretary of the Committee may with the prior concurrence of the Chairman, put up notice regarding the work of the committee on the notice board of the establishment.

58-A. Submission of returns:— The employer shall submit half-yearly returns as in Form G-I in triplicate to the Conciliation Officer concerned, not later than the 20th of the month following the half year.

59. Dissolution of Committee:— The Government, or where the power under Section 2 has been delegated to any officer or authority under Sec.39, such officer or authority may, after making such inquiry as it or he may deem fit, dissolve any committee at any time, by an order in writing, if it or he is satisfied that the committee has been constituted in accordance with these rules or that not less than two thirds of the number of representatives of the workmen have, without any reasonable justification failed to attend three consecutive meetings of the committee or that committee has, for any other reason, ceased to function:

Provided that where a committee is dissolved under this rule, the employer may, and if so required by the Government or as the case may be, such officer or authority shall, take steps to re-constitute the committee in accordance with these rules.

PART VIII

(ii) where there is no registered trade union, by 5 representatives of the workmen duly authorised in the General Body meeting by the majority of the workmen, held for this purpose.

(c) in the case of an individual workman, by himself.
(3) Where a settlement is arrived at in the course of conciliation proceeding, the Conciliation Officer shall send a report to the Government together with a copy of the memorandum of settlement signed by the parties to the dispute.

(4) Where a settlement is arrived at between an employer and his workmen otherwise than in the course of conciliation proceeding before a Board or a Conciliation Officer, the parties to the settlement shall jointly send a copy thereof to the Government, the Commissioner of Labour and to the Conciliation Officer concerned.

61. Complaints regarding change of conditions of service, etc. - (1) Every complaint under Section 33-A of the Act shall be presented in triplicate in Form ‘I’ and shall be accompanied by as many copies of the complaint as there are opposite parties to the complaint.

(2) Every complaint under sub-rule (1) shall be verified at the foot by the workmen making it or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Labour Court, or Tribunal to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

(3) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs to the complaint, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(4) The verification shall be signed by person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

62. Application under Section 33 - (1) An employer intending to obtain the express permission in writing of the Conciliation Officer, Board, Labour Court, or Tribunal, as the case may be, under sub-section (1) and sub-section (3) of Section 33 shall present an application in Form-i in triplicate to the Conciliation Officer, Board, Labour Court or Tribunal and shall file along with the application as many copies thereof as there are opposite parties.

(2) An employer seeking the approval of the Conciliation Officer, Board, Labour Court, or Tribunal, as the case may be, of any action taken by him under Clause (a) or (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 33 shall present an application in Form-K in triplicate to such Conciliation Officer, Board, Labour Court or Tribunal and shall file along with the application as many copies thereof as opposite parties.

(3) Every application under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall be verified at the foot by the employer making it or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Conciliation Officer, Board, Labour Court or Tribunal to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

(4) The person verifying shall specify by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the application, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(5) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was verified.

63. Protected Workmen - (1) Every registered trade union connected with an industrial establishment, to which the Act applies, shall communicate to the employer before the 30th April every year, the names and addresses of such the officers of the union who are employed in that establishment and who, in the opinion of the union should be recognised as “Protected Workmen”. Any change in the incumbency of any such officer shall be communicated to the employer by the union within fifteen days of such change.
(2) The employer shall subject to sub-section (4) of Section 33, recognise such workmen to be “protected workmen” for the period of 12 months from the date of such communication for the purpose of sub-sec of(3) of the said Section and communicate to the union, in writing fifteen days the receipt of the names and addresses under sub-rule (1), the list of workmen recognised as protected workmen.

(3) Where the total number of names received by the employer under sub-rule (1) exceeds the maximum number of protected workmen admissible for the establishment, under sub-section (4) of Section 33, the employer shall recognise as protected workmen only such maximum number of workmen:

Provided that where there is more than one registered trade union in the establishment, the maximum number shall be so distributed by the employer among unions that the number of recognised protected workmen in individual unions bear roughly the same proportion to one another as the membership figures of the unions. The employer shall in that case intimate in writing to the President or the Secretary of the union the number of protected workmen allotted to it:

Provided further that where the number of protected workmen allotted to a union under this sub-rule, falls short of the number of officers of the union seeking protection, the union shall be entitled to select the officer to be recognised as protected workmen. Such selection shall be made by the union and communicated to the employer within five days of the receipt of the employer’s letter.

(4) When a dispute arises between an employer and any registered trade union in any matter connected with the recognition of ‘protected workmen’ under this rule, dispute shall be referred to the Labour Court whose decision thereon shall be final.

64. Application for recovery of dues

PART IX

Rules for the preservation and destruction of records

83. Index: - An index in the form prescribed in appendix ‘A’ shall be put up with the record of every dispute when it is first referred to the Labour Court or Industrial Tribunal as the case may be.

84. Filing of papers: - Each paper, as it is filed in the record shall be numbered and entered in the index under the appropriate part of file to which it belongs. The part of file to which a particular paper belongs shall be determined with relevance to the Table in Appendix ‘B’.

85. Categorisation of record: - Every record, book and paper, shall after completion, be deposited in the room. Once so deposited every record shall be divided into parts, File-A and File-B, each paper in the record being placed in its appropriate part with reference to the Table in Appendix ‘B’.

86. Final stage of record: - A record shall be taken to have reached completion on the date of the final order of the Labour Court or Industrial Tribunal, as the case may be, or in the event of any proceeding in the High Court, or the Supreme Court on the date of the final order of the High Court or the Supreme Court, as the case may be.

87. Destruction of records: - All records, books, registers and papers shall be retained in the record room for the periods prescribed for each in Appendices ‘C’ and ‘D’ counting from the date of completion. On the expiry of such periods, they shall be destroyed, subject to the provisions of Rules 88 and 89; for the purposes of these rules, any record or paper of the proceedings under Sections 10-A, 33 and 34-A and of matters incidental to disputes referred to under Section 10 shall be deemed to be record or paper.

88. Indestructible records: - The following shall on no account be destroyed:

1. Records connected with expenditure which is within the period of limitation.
2. Records connected with expenditure on project schemes or works not completed, although beyond the period of limitation.
3. Records connected with claims to service and personal matters affecting persons in the service.
4. Orders and sanctions of a permanent character, until revised.
89. Evidence in suits: Where any document of which the destruction is ordered by these rules is, before it has been destroyed, made evidence in any other suit or proceedings, the rules regulating its destruction will be the rule applicable to evidence filed in such suit or proceeding where the period prescribed by such last mentioned rule is in excess of the period prescribed by the rules which originally governed its destruction.

90. Notification for destruction: In January of each year, notice shall be published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette and shall also be affixed to the Court’s notice board, specifying the documents filed by parties, which will be destroyed during the ensuing year, the cases to which such documents appertain if any, and the dates on which such documents shall be destroyed, and giving warning that unless previously reclaimed by parties duly entitled if any, before the said dates, destruction shall without fail, ensue. All documents reclaimed by parties duly entitled shall be returned to such parties under orders of the Presiding Officers of the Labour Court or Industrial Tribunal, as the case may be.

91. Mode of destruction: When the dates fixed for destruction have arrived, the Presiding Officers of the Labour Court or the Industrial Tribunal, as the case may be, shall direct that the records, books and papers liable to be destroyed, be destroyed in the manner specified in Rule 92:

Provided that the Presiding Officers of the Labour Court and the Industrial Tribunal, may in their discretion for reasons to be recorded in writing direct that transfer of any paper from one part to other for which a long period of retention or permanent retention is prescribed in which case the fact shall be noted in the Index and the paper dealt with as though it had belonged from the commencement to the part to which it may be so transferred. The said Presiding Officers may similarly direct the retention for longer period or permanently of records, books and papers which he may consider likely to be useful in the future as containing the result of enquiries or other information or the opinions of experienced officers in matters connected with the general administration of justice and maintenance of peace in the industry.

92. Officers to be present at the time of destruction: With the exception of Gazettes of Government and printed administration reports, awards, etc., all other records, books, registers and papers to be destroyed under Rule 87 must be burnt in the presence of the record keeper or other supervising official, provided that the Presiding Officer of the Labour Court or the Industrial Tribunal, as the case may be, may sanction their disposal in any other manner.

93. Documents which cannot be destroyed: Nothing contained in these rules shall be deemed to authorize the destruction of any document filed by officers of Government or produced by such officer upon summons under Order XIII, Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908). Such documents, if not previously reclaimed shall invariably be returned to the Court or office from which they were produced.
